

Top off your wedding outfit with your dream tiara, necklace or choker and earrings

ANDREW PRINCE

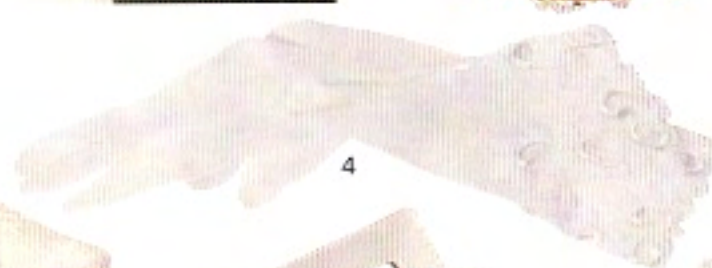

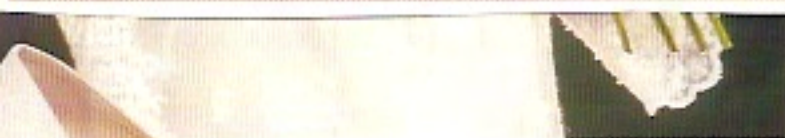

Having spent most of his working life with fine antique jewellery, Andrew Prince has developed a keen sense for jewels that are elegant and enhance the wearer. Taking inspiration from the Belle Époque and Imperial Russia where delicacy and refined craftsmanship were at their finest.

Andrew Prince believes that "Quality and proportion are absolutely vital for good design" as a result of this the Victoria and Albert museum commissioned him to create a collection of jewels to accompany the recent tiara exhibition.

Andrew Prince has created exclusive jewels for the Royal family, Michael Jackson and Shirley Bassey to name but a few.

4 Pemberton Court
Portelet Road,
London E1 4EN
Tel/Fax 020 7265 9113

- 1 Lace trim, from £6.50 per metre, MacCulloch & Walls
- 2 Gold lace and beaded tiara, £185, Kathryn Russell
- 3 'Rosie' lace Mary Jane shoes, £229, Filippa Scott
- 4 Lace trim long gloves, approx. £35, Cornelia James
- 5 White 'Flower Net' tights, from a selection, Wollford
- 6 'Regency' pearl and Swarovski crystal tiara, £95, Katie Green
- 7 Satin and lace bag, £160, Clare Musgrove
- 8 'Queen of Sheba' three row pearl necklace, £210, Pelegina
- 9 Gold wedding band, from £75, Goldsmiths
- 10 Golden corded lace mules, made to order, Basia Zarzycka

For stockists see page 208