AT Browns Bride LUXURY BOUTIQUE

ANDREW PRINCE

"JEWELLERY SHOULD ALWAYS ENHANCE THE BRIDE RATHER THAN DOMINATE HER LOOK, SO I ALWAYS TRY TO MATCH THE PIECE WITH THE PERSON," SAYS DESIGNER ANDREW PRINCE, WHO CREATES SOME OF THE FINEST COSTUME JEWELLERY IN THE UK, COMBINING QUALITY WITH ELEGANT DESIGN AND ROMANTIC WEARABILITY.

Stocking the world's most exciting and innovative bridal designers – including exclusive pieces from Oscar de la Renta, Monique Lhuillier, Carolina Herrera, Elizabeth Fillmore, Peter Langner, Angel Sanchez, Rebecca Street and more – it's no surprise that Browns Bride has a reputation for being the most fashion-forward bridal store in the world!

In the luxurious setting of its listed building in central London you'll discover the dress of your dreams, whatever your personal taste or style of wedding. And alongside its unique range of beautiful gowns, Browns Bride also has a wonderful selection of Christian Louboutin and Rupert Sanderson bridal shoes, a selection of veils, jewellery, corsetry and other accessories – both traditional and fashion-inspired – to complete your big-day look.

Browns Bride is the brainchild of Caroline Burstein, daughter to Joan Burstein of Browns in South Molton Street.

"After unsuccessfully hunting for wedding dresses for my two daughters, I could see that there was a real need for a great selection of designer dresses under one roof," says Caroline. "We pride ourselves on offering a really exceptional service that is personal, welcoming and knowledgeable. My friendly team provide honest advice combined with fashion expertise and a 'professional eye' which is guaranteed to help every bride find the most exquisite dress for the biggest day of her life!"
