

The couple

◀ Bride Abigail Good, 33, yoga teacher.

Groom Jamie Campbell, 34, music publisher.

In the beginning "I met Jamie on a group holiday to Switzerland in 2002. I didn't notice him at first – he was quiet compared to the other guys – but things changed when we all went out for a fondue. I had far too much to drink and he looked after me – it was then I realised how gorgeous he was," says Abigail.

"The next day we talked non-stop. There was real chemistry between us and one of the others joked that we'd get married. I thought, 'Yes please!' After the holiday I couldn't stop thinking about him so, as a joke, I rang him to arrange our 'engagement' celebration. Eight months after we started dating, Jamie proposed – and we were soon arranging our engagement party for real!"

"When we said our vows it felt like we were the only two people in the world"

Ceremony

The couple wed on 10 May 2003 at Dunkeld Cathedral, Scotland, in front of 250 guests. "Saying my vows was so special" says Abigail. "It felt like Jamie and I were the only two people in the world"

Bridesmaids

Outfits Abigail's nieces, Georgia and Charlotte Roberts, Hannah Hardeman and Isabella Andrew wore satin bridesmaid's dresses from Soie Môme Bridal and Eveningwear in London (020 7483 3843).

"Everyone said how cute they looked in their little French-style outfits," says Abigail.